“ You know, as far back as I can remember, Uncle Arch has been putting a smile on my face. His jokes, his humor, his Monkey, but most importantly, his love. The man didn't go anywhere that he didn't make someone laugh to the point of tears. He loved his family. He was the clown of the family. Nobody gave hugs quite like Uncle Arch. I can remember having birthdays, and being so excited to check the mail, because I knew that Uncle Arch and Aunt Barb never missed one. When my mom was so sick, he'd sing to her " You are my sunshine, my only sunshine. You make me happy, when skies are grey. You'll never know dear, how much I love you. Please don't take my sunshine away." I can close my eyes and still hear him and see his face. Now he is, along with my mother, my sunshine. I'm still shocked at how quickly this has come about. It seems just yesterday, I was a little girl, getting phone calls from "Santa Claus". I remember when I finally figured out it was Uncle Arch, I was so mad at him. But, boy! Did he do a good job at it. He went out of his way many times to make sure that all of us kids had a good time. One thing is for sure, there will never be another quite like my Uncle Arch. What I would give for one more laugh, one more smile, one more joke, one more hug. I love you Uncle Arch, and though I never said it enough, thank you for being the wonderful person you've always been. So many fond memories I hold dear. You will be so sweetly remembered, and I will miss you terribly. God rest your soul, you deserve a rest within the sweet arms of angels. Take care of my momma, I know she's glad to see you. Watch over us, until we meet again someday. Love always, Christina.

“ Archie you ment everything to me. You always made me laugh even when you tried to scare me with your Creek Field Women stories. We had a lot of fun riding the 4-wheelers, and just talking. I know life for me will go on with out you here but it will never be the same. I know you will be watching over me every day. I will miss you. I do miss you. I love you for ever.

“ To the family,I was very hurt at the learning of the passing of my friend Arch.I didn't know him but a little over year and half, but it seemed like I had known him all my life.Arch had a way of making you feel that meeting him was not like meeting a stranger.He was always ready to give you his expert opinion to help you in what ever you needed to build or repair. But the best thing that Arch has going for him, is now he sitting at the right hand of the father,and I know that he has recieved job well done my good and faithfull servent. Bernie
